BORN IN HARLEM RAISED IN BIRMINGHAM

A HARLEM STORY

Holy Moly's story began when we took a trip to Harlem, New York in 2012 in search of the legendary Mac 'n' Cheese we'd heard so much about, but we were both truly inspired by what we'd found...

Harlem revealed itself to us with open arms... a melting pot of culture! A vibrant fusion of community, art, music and food - soul food!

The people of Harlem talked about their comfort food with complete passion. Their famous fried chicken, ribs and original mac 'n' cheese recipes that have been passed through the generations.

The soul food didn't come alone, the atmosphere captivated us, the eclectic music and infectious vibe embodied everything and everyone it touched.

We fell in love instantly with how food was at the heart and spirit of the Harlem community. From that day onwards we have worked with a talented team to develop our own interpretation and Holy Moly was born.
